Police Department - Texas Public Information Act Request Form

Please note that Texas Public Information Act requests which seek information other than basic information (as described in section two below) or an officer's accident report (as described in section three below) are handled by the UH System Office of the General Counsel ("UHS OGC"). Consequently, unless you request only basic information or an officer's accident report, this form will be forwarded to the UHS OGC for that office to determine, in accordance with applicable Texas law, what, if any, of the information requested below will be released. If you are seeking more than basic information or an officer's accident report, an attorney from the UHS OGC will be in contact with you within the time allowed under Texas law.
