HAWK CONNECTION

A TRANSFER ADVISING PROGRAM

The choice is clear.

University of Houston
Clear Lake

What is Hawk Connection?

Hawk Connection is University of Houston-Clear Lake's transfer program specifically for students who begin at a community college and are considering to transfer to UHCL to complete a degree.

The goal of Hawk Connection is to make the transfer process for future hawks a positive experience by providing services such as academic and career advising. Students meet with a designated Hawk Connection adviser each semester to check on their academic progress, ensuring they remain on the right academic path.

Benefits to joining Hawk Connection.

In addition to academic and career advising, Hawk Connection allows students to become familiar with university life and enjoy the many benefits and services the program offers.

With the guidance of an adviser, students participating in Hawk Connection become familiar with university policies and procedures as well as specific requirements for their major.

Hawk Connection offers future hawks:

- A degree plan under the current UHCL catalog
- An application fee waiver
- Access to UHCL's library
- Participation in many on-campus activities and so much more.

Eligibility Requirements

Students interested in joining Hawk Connection should enroll at a community college first and meet the following program criteria:

- Have earned less than 36 semester hours on all college course work
- Attend a mandatory advising meeting
- Sign a Hawk Connection Agreement

Join Hawk Connection!

Joining Hawk Connection is easy, just follow these simple three steps.

1. Enroll at a community college.
2. Obtain copies of transcripts from the colleges and universities previously attended. Official copies preferred.
3. Schedule an advising meeting by contacting Hawk Connection at 281-283-3068 or scheduling an advising meeting online at www.uhcl.edu/hawkconnection.
