QEP 2022 Form

We need your help deciding on a QEP topic addressing UHCL’s strategic themes:
  • Educational Achievement
  • Inclusive Culture
  • Innovation through Collaboration
  • University Identity

Please share your ideas before April 30, 2020.

Full Name(s)

______________________________________________________________

Email(s):

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

College/Department:

______________________________________________________________
Please complete each of the following questions.

Q1. Strategic Theme Addressed:

- Educational Achievement
- Inclusive Culture
- Innovation through Collaboration
- University Identity

Q2. Brief description/overview of topic:

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Q3. How will this improve student learning at UHCL?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________