

MS-FINANCE2017-2018 Degree Requirements

With a degree in finance, you can pursue a variety of career fields including: auditor, bank officer, financial and securities analyst, financial planner, loan officer, risk manager, mortgage analyst, tax compliance manager, and trust and treasury manager. This program can be completed online.

Degree Requirements (30 Hours):

ECON 5136	Managerial Economics	PLUS:	6 Hours Approved Finance Electives:
FINC 5133	Corporate Finance	FINC 5134	Real Estate Investment Analysis and Financing
FINC 5231	Quantitative Methods in Finance	FINC 5331	Treasury Management
FINC 5332	Financial Statement Analysis	FINC 5333	Personal Wealth Management
FINC 6131	Commercial Banking	FINC 5931	Research Topics in Finance
FINC 6231	Investment Management	FINC 6233	Options and Futures
FINC 6531	International Finance	FINC 6234	Portfolio Management
FINC 6731	Seminar in Finance (Capstone)	FINC 6739	Internship in Finance

Healthcare Administration Concentration

Students may complete a 12 hour concentration in Healthcare Administration within the MS Finance degree program. In addition to the graduate course work listed above, the following Healthcare Administration courses are required (HADM concentration not available online):

HADM 5233	Financial Management of Healthcare Organizations II
HADM 5331	Planning Healthcare Services
HADM 6132	Legal Aspects of Healthcare Systems
HADM 6235	Managed Care

All HADM courses not available in online format.*

Concentration fulfills 6 hours Finance Electives plus 6 additional hours.*

Total hours with healthcare concentration: 36 hours