

Island Life® Greek Isles & Ephesus

Wonders of Antiquity

See the classical world come to life on this Aegean voyage to the ancient sites where Western civilization as we know it was founded. Cruise round-trip Athens for seven nights to experience the mythical landscapes of Greece and Turkey, where you will be immersed in epic stories from antiquity. Traverse the streets of UNESCO-inscribed Delos — legendary birthplace of Artemis and Apollo — and enjoy time at leisure on the island of Mykonos, famous for its whitewashed houses, iconic windmills and cosmopolitan verve. Visit the Terrace Houses of Ephesus, explore the ancient wonder of Pátmos and climb to the clifftop acropolis at Lindos on the island of Rhodes. Discover the mysteries of Santorini, a crescent-shaped island featuring a spectacular caldera shaped by a volcanic explosion about 3,600 years ago — potentially burying what some believe was the lost city of Atlantis. Conclude your tour in the rarely visited island of Milos, where pieces of the world-famous Venus de Milo were discovered and reassembled more than 2,000 years after the Hellenistic statue was created.

UHCL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dear UHCL Alumni,

Journey to the cradle of civilization as you explore the preserved treasures of ancient Greece and Turkey. Cruise round-trip Athens for seven nights to fabled halcyon islands aboard the exclusively chartered, first class Wind Spirit. This four-masted sailing yacht is able to moor in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels.

Our epic tour calls at Delos; Mykonos; Pátmos; Rhodes; Santorini; and Milos — ancient destinations steeped in myth and history. Sail Turkey's sun-drenched coast to visit Ephesus, the most spectacularly preserved Greco-Roman city in the world. Behold wonders from antiquity, from the Monastery of St. John in Pátmos to the majestic Sacred Way in Delos — the legendary birthplace of Artemis and Apollo.

Enjoy time on your own to explore the island of Mykonos, where according to Greek mythology, Hercules lured giants into battle and the large rock formations that remain are evidence of their defeat. Your journey concludes on the remote island of Milos, where the famous Venus de Milo statue was found.

An excellent value at the best time of year where all accommodations, meals, and an excursion every day are included, and you only need to unpack once! Make your reservations while space and early booking savings are still available!

Hope to see you soon,

Legends of Ephesus

Ancient Ephesus is a city of stories, ones that trace from as far back as 1050 B.C. through the Roman Imperial era to the age of early Christian evangelism. A port city and center of trade on the Mediterranean for millennia, its first settlers were Anatolian people who would later be captured by Ionian tribes, who were unseated by the Persians, who were then conquered by legendary Greek leader Alexander the Great. However, most of the well-preserved ruins you will see today in this UNESCO-inscribed Turkish city are remnants of an age of extreme wealth and prosperity enjoyed under the first century reign of Caesar Augustus. As the new capital city of the Roman Empire, the Hellenistic Great Theatre was renovated with lavish Roman aesthetics; the grand, two-story Library of Celsus was constructed; and elaborate villas known as the Terrace Houses were built for its most elite residents. Very close to Ephesus you may also see what remains of the Temple of Artemis, one of the “Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.” This temple to the goddess Artemis, built in the sixth century B.C., was set on fire, then rebuilt several times only to be destroyed by a Christian mob around 401 A.D. Believing that the Virgin Mary lived here after the death of Jesus, Ephesus has since become a site of Christian pilgrimages that continue to this day.

Journey Through Time

Lions Terrace, Delos, Greece

The Roman writer Cicero observed of Athens that “wherever you set your foot, you encounter some memory of the past.” In Greece and Turkey, the stories of antiquity come to life. St. John the Apostle is believed to have penned the Book of Revelation on Patmos; the legend of the lost utopian city of Atlantis lives on in Santorini; and it is on these mythological islands that Odysseus sought redemption in the Underworld and where Orpheus retrieved his first love. Walk the Sacred Way of Delos and discover ancient Akrotiri — the “Minoan Pompeii.” Enjoy exclusive cultural enrichments, including a classical concert at the historical Caravanserai building in Kusadasi and a traditional Greek folklore performance on this immersive itinerary.

GOHAGAN & COMPANY

2025 | 9-DAY/8-NIGHT ITINERARY

Depart Home City

Day 1 | August 29

Depart your home city.

Arrive in Athens, Greece

Day 2 | August 30

Arrive in Athens, Greece, where you will embark the first class Wind Spirit. (D)

Delos/Mykonos, Greece

Day 3 | August 31

This morning, visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of Delos — the legendary birthplace of Artemis and Apollo. Walk along the Sacred Way to the Sanctuary of Apollo, a spectacularly rich archaeological site with remains of three separate temples from the fifth and sixth centuries B.C. See the legendary Terrace of the Lions, dedicated to Apollo, where hand-carved marble statues guarded the island for nearly 2,600 years. After lunch on board the ship, explore the island of Mykonos, where according to ancient legend, its craggy hills and clefts were formed from the petrified bodies of giants defeated by Hercules. Join fellow travelers for the Captain's Welcome Reception this evening. (B,L,R, D)

Kusadasi, Turkey, for Ephesus

Day 4 | September 1

Arrive in Kusadasi and drive to Ephesus, a vast archaeological site of Greek, Roman and Byzantine ruins including the restored and reconstructed Celsus Library and the Great Theater. Visit the Terrace Houses and the Ephesus Archaeological Museum, which showcases artifacts that were retrieved from Ephesus during excavations in the late 19th and early 20th centuries — including the famous statue of Artemis. Later this evening, enjoy a classical concert at the historical Caravanserai building. (B,L,D)

Pátmos

Day 5 | September 2

On the island of Pátmos, tour the Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, a UNESCO World Heritage site. See the Cave of the Apocalypse, where St. John the Apostle most likely wrote the Book of Revelation in 95 A.D. Return to the ship for lunch on board and a culinary demonstration. (B,L,D)

Rhodes/Lindos

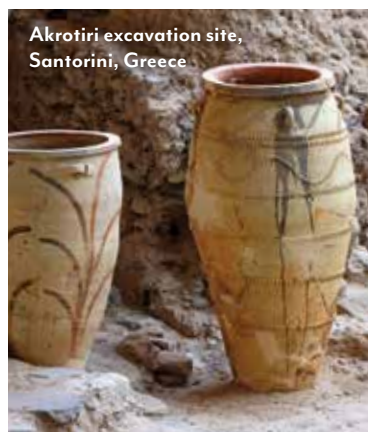

Day 6 | September 3

Dock in Rhodes at the wall of Rhodes Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with a stop at its ancient port — where the mighty Colossus of Rhodes statue stood before it was destroyed by an earthquake in the third century B.C.

Explore the medieval old town as it was built by the Order of St. John, which occupied Rhodes from the early 14th century through the 16th century.

Village of Lindos and the Acropolis, Rhodes, Greece

Visit the Palace of the Grand Masters, a formidable Gothic castle that houses a treasure trove of art, furniture and icons from that era.

You will be able to choose from two activities this afternoon. One is an excursion to the ancient village of Lindos to see its Church of Panagia and cliff-top Acropolis. At a height of 535 feet, this iconic site offers breathtaking views and photo opportunities of the village. Alternatively, you may opt to indulge in an afternoon at leisure in Rhodes. Enjoy a traditional Greek folklore show with local musicians and dancers, followed by dinner on board the ship this evening. (B,L,D)

Santorini

Day 7 | September 4

Be on deck as the ship cruises into the port of Santorini, beneath which some believe to be the legendary lost city of Atlantis. From the port we will drive to the southern end of the island for a tour of Akrotiri — a unique archeological site that dates to prehistoric times. Tour these spectacular Minoan ruins, held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3,500 years.

Visit the Museum of Prehistoric Thera, which houses finds excavated from Akrotiri. Continue to the town of Fira, renowned for its whitewashed buildings, stunning views and vibrant energy. Enjoy an afternoon with time to explore Santorini at your own pace. (B,L,D)

Milos, Greece

Day 8 | September 5

Today the ship arrives in Milos, a largely undeveloped volcanic island in the East Cyclades known for its abundance of sandy beaches and stunning topography.

It was on this remote island that the world-famous Venus de Milo marble statue was found in pieces in 1820. Though most of it was reassembled and presented to King Louis XVIII, the arms of the ancient female figure believed to represent Aphrodite were never found. Visit the Archaeological Museum of Milos, which features exhibits that date from the Neolithic period through late antiquity. After lunch on board, enjoy time at leisure at the beach or participating in maritime activities. Attend a Captain's Farewell Reception and dinner this evening. (B,L,R,D)

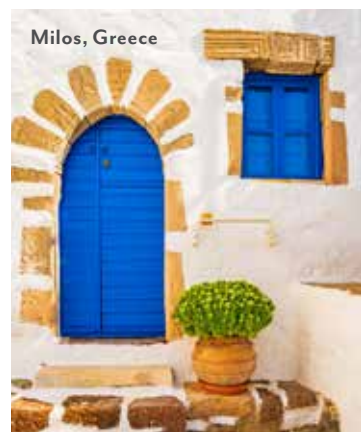

Athens/Return to Home City

Day 9 | September 6

Arrive in Athens this morning. Disembark and continue on the Delphi Post-Tour Extension or transfer to the airport for your return flight home. (B)

Mykonos, Greece

Milos, Greece
