

Behavior Analysis for Inclusive Physical Exams

1

Funding Disclaimer:

Download Materials
or Contact Us:

HOW TO PRACTICE After the Training

Physical Examiners: Use this Booklet to Help You

Patients: Choose “ACT AS PATIENT” on Training Site

Evaluators: Choose “EVALUATE” on Training Site

Training Site:

Start of Exam

Greet Patient

Introduce Yourself

Explain
Purpose

Give Distractor

Build Rapport
During Real Visits

Before Each Procedure...³

Tell what you will do

Show what you will do
using visual

Do
Procedure

Scan or click QR to access the electronic visual support

If Patient Cooperates

After Procedure:

Praise or Thanks

Offer Break

If Patient Doesn't Cooperate...

Break Down the Procedure: Ask patient to “look” at the medical instrument or visual support from 2 feet away, then from 1 foot away, then retry procedure. Remember to give praise, incentive, and offer a break after each step.
Move on if they are uncooperative during any step.

End of Exam

Thank Patient

Give More
Incentives

Say
Goodbye