WORLD SERIES

SUNDAY, OCT. 20, 2019 | 7:30 P.M.
Las Cafeteras
Latino-roots artist Las Cafeteras are remixing roots music with modern day stories to create musical fusion with an East L.A. sound. Their Afro-Mexican beats and rhymes deliver inspiring lyrics, documenting stories of a community seeking love.

THURSDAY, NOV. 14, 2019 | 7:30 P.M.
Del Castillo
This powerhouse group blends rock, Latin, blues and world music. Their music has been featured in films like “Once Upon a Time in Mexico,” and “Sin City,” and worked with Quentin Tarantino for the end credits of “Kill Bill Vol. II.” They’ve won over 18 awards, including SXSW and Austin Music Album of the Year.

THURSDAY, JAN. 23, 2020 | 7:30 P.M.
Ladysmith Black Mambazo
Ladysmith Black Mambazo performed with Paul Simon on his iconic Grammy award-winning album, “Graceland.” Winners of five Grammys, this all-male African acapella group performs spiritually rich music that reflects the beauty and depth of Zulu culture.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 2020 | 7:30 P.M.
Goitse
This premiere Irish folk band is frequently named Ireland’s Traditional Group of the Year. They’ll perform their award winning music at the Bayou Theater just in time for St. Patty’s Day. Singing in both English and traditional languages, they will set your toes tapping with their take on traditional reels and folk tunes.

THURSDAY, FEB. 28, 2020 | 7:30 P.M.
Remember Jones
Remember Jones is a one-of-a-kind soul and pop singer, storyteller and bandleader with a throwback vibe and authentic energy. This evening will feature an entire set of Amy Winehouse songs along with some heart-thumping original jams.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 2020 | 7:30 P.M.
Ranky Tanky
Ranky Tanky’s music is derived from the Gullah tradition of South Carolina’s Lowcountry. The evening will be filled with everything from playful game songs to ecstatic shouts, and from heartbreaking spirituals to delicate lullabies.

PURCHASE TICKETS TODAY!  www uhcl edu bayoutheater or 281 283 3024