ONE-DAY MINI

A TESTING AND COLLEGE READINESS PROFESSIONALS EXPERIENCE

September 15, 2022 --- 10:00 AM – 3 PM

10:00 am – Welcome & Introductions – Diana Nores, Director, Testing, UH Clear Lake

You made it! Let's get to know each other and our partner companies. Visits into the UHCL Testing Center are welcome throughout the Mini.

10:30 am – TSIA2 with the Proc – Accuplacer – Kathie Montognese Senior Director of Outreach, ACCUPLACER Program, The College Board
Information, updates and “good-to-knows” from the pros. Bring all your TSIA2 questions.

11:15 am – CLEP OUT – Gini Beran, Director, CLEP Outreach and Account Management, College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), The College Board
All about CLEP, and why you should encourage your students to CLEP out as soon as possible.

12:00 pm- Lunch-n-Network/UHCL Testing Center walkthroughs
Graciously provided by an NCTA Grant

1:00 pm – Certiport – Jeff Christensen, Sr. Territory Manager – Post-Secondary, Government & Workforce, Certiport, a Pearson VUE Business
In this highly competitive world, certifications are a credible, third-party assessment of one's skill and knowledge for a given subject. High School students already take some prior to graduation. Learn why you should certify your students.

1:45 pm - Taking Flight – A student's Learning and Assessment Path from High School to College – Moderator: Diana Nores, Director, Testing, UH Clear Lake
K12 and College Counseling and Assessment teams partnerships are a dream. We all want to ensure the smoothest transition from k12 into College, but sometimes we know little about each other's shops. Let's talk about helping our students take flight with “all their ducks in the row”. How can you make this handoff efficient in your area, and how can we mainstream it in Texas?

2:45 – Closing remarks – Diana Nores, Director, Testing, UH Clear Lake
