

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION M.S.

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER IN EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The Master of Science in Early Childhood Education from the University of Houston–Clear Lake provides an opportunity to expand your reach as an educator, encourage your growth as a leader in the field, and empower you to become a lifelong learner.

DEGREE OPTIONS

- 100% online degree option
- Specialized tracks for you to focus your area of expertise including Early childhood Leadership and Focus on Young Children with Disabilities
- Initial and add-on Early Childhood: PK–3 Certification options –anticipated Fall 2023
- Multiple elective options
- Choose a thesis or practicum

FLEXIBLE AND PERSONAL

- Online, evening, and hybrid courses
- Small class sizes mean your instructors get to know you!

CAREER OPTIONS

In addition to teaching in an early childhood classroom, you have multiple career options including:

- Director of early childhood programs at public and private agencies.
- Consulting, assessing, coaching, mentoring, or providing technical assistance for various federal, state and local agencies.
- Administrator/director/owner of early childhood care or education facility.
- Early childhood interventionist.
- Federal, state, or local regulator of early childhood care program or facility
- Early childhood course instructor at the community college level.

For questions or more information:

Or contact:

UHCL Office of Admissions
Anna Sturton, M. Ed,
Graduate Counselor
281-283-2527
Sturton@uhcl.edu