

DISSERTATION SAMPLE PAGES

Outlined below is a sample format for a dissertation. Do not use it to write your dissertation. Use the UHCL Dissertation Template Files.

The format of a dissertation will vary considerably depending on committee preferences, research topic, research method, as well as other factors. The format outlined below is therefore illustrative, not prescriptive. The candidate's dissertation chair should be consulted regarding the actual format to be followed.

Table of Contents must include each major section heading for the text up to and including Level 2 Headings. All chapter titles and subheadings listed on the Table of Contents must exactly match the headings as presented in the text. For example, a chapter labeled as “Chapter 3” in the Table of Contents should not appear as “Chapter III” within the text.

All tables, figures, illustrations, and other types of examples included and referenced in the text of the dissertation should be numbered for identification. No two examples should be assigned the same number.

Tables/figures may be numbered in one of two ways:

- Consecutively throughout the document (e.g. Table 1 – Table x)
- Per-chapter so that the numbers reflect the location in the document (e.g. Table 4.1 is the first table in Chapter 4).

Do not mix these two types of numbering schemes within your dissertation.
