Internship Opportunities
Environment for the Americas internship program seeks to engage racially and ethnically diverse college students, graduates, and graduate students in natural resources and other.

• Paid Internships • Unique Experiences • Locations Nationwide

- US Citizens or Legal Residents
- Fully vaccinated for COVID-19
- Ages for these internships 18-30, up to 35 years for veterans

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, GOLDEN GATE NATIONAL RECREATION AREA, FORT CRONKHITE, CA
• Natural Resources Wildlife Intern
• Aquatic Ecology Intern
• Natural Resources Management Intern (San Mateo County)
• Natural Resources Management Intern (Fort Baker)
• Habitat Restoration & Plant Monitoring Intern
• Water Quality & Wetland Monitoring Intern
• Trail Construction & Maintenance Intern (2 positions available)
• Habitat Restoration Intern (2 positions available)

Start Date: October 31, 2022, End Date: October 30, 2023
Compensation: $475 per week
Deadline to apply: August 30th

U.S. FISH & WILDLIFE SERVICE
• Refuge Outreach and Management Intern/ Trinity River National Wildlife Refuge, Liberty, TX
  Start Date: ASAP - End Date: January 15, 2023
• Latino Engagement Intern/ Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge Corvallis, OR Start Date: October 2022 – May 2023 (with potential to extend)

Compensation: $475-$600 per week
Deadline to apply: August 30th

Learn more and apply here:
https://environmentamericas.org/efta-internships-landing-page/
internships@environmentamericas.org