

Houston | Bay Area Storm Water Flooding Forum: Harvey, Ike and the Future

What can be done about our flooding?

Tues. Nov. 28 at 7 pm

Gilruth Center at Johnson Space Center

Agenda

Time	Topic Title	Speaker	Organization and Title
6:30 – 7:00	Check-in and Seating		Doors open
7:00 – 7:10	Host/Moderator Welcome comments & introductions	Dr. George Guillen	Environmental Institute at UHCL, Director
	PANEL 1
7:10 – 7:20	“Global Warming/Climate Change and Hurricane Harvey?”	Dr. André Droxler	Rice University, Prof of Earth, Environmental and Planetary Studies
7:20 – 7:30	“Hurricane Harvey Impacts”	Stephen Costello	City of Houston, Chief Resilience Officer
7:30 – 7:40	“Learning to embrace our limits”	Dr. John Jacob	TX A&M, Coastal Watershed Program, Director
7:40 – 7:50	“Looking for Answers – Exploration Green”	John Branch	Clear Lake City Water Authority, President
7:50 – 8:00	“Resilience: Going Beyond Recovery”	Lisa Gonzalez	Houston Advanced Research Center/HARC, President/CEO
8:00 – 8:15	Panel 1 Q & A	All
	PANEL 2
8:30 – 8:40	TBD	Bob Stokes	Galveston Bay Foundation, Director
8:40 – 8:50	"Potential Environmental Impacts of a Coastal Barrier Project"	Brandt Mannchen	Sierra Club – Houston leader
8:50 – 9:00	“Coastal Atlas and Storm Surge Protection”	Col. Len Waterworth (ret.)	TX A&M, Marine Administration, Executive Professor
9:00 – 9:10	“Let’s Talk About Flooding in the Bay Area”	Jim Blackburn	Rice U, SSPEED Center, Co-Director
9:10 – 9:25	Panel 2 Q & A	All
9:25 – 9:30	Summary comments & closing	Dr. George Guillen	Environmental Institute at UHCL, Director

Event website www.goo.gl/mJJWcx

Event Hashtag to follow on-line discussion and ask questions: #FloodForum2017