I. PURPOSE

University of Houston-Clear Lake's Shared Governance System (SGS) is a participatory, advisory system charged with supporting the university's mission. The SGS provides a collaborative avenue through which the constituent groups advise the university's president on matters of policy and operations and assist in the development of procedures. The responsibilities of the SGS also include monitoring and overseeing the implementation of policies and procedures.

II. GOVERNANCE

Governance refers to the process of policy making and macro-level decision making within an institution. Governance, academic or non-academic, is defined as the manner in which issues affecting the entire institution, or one or more constituents, are decided. Constituent groups are expected to handle their internal affairs and every item need not go through the shared governance process.

III. STRUCTURE

The SGS shall consist of three layers, including the following committees and their subcommittees:

3.1 Primary: University Council (UC), The UC will direct a review of the University Shared Governance Policy every five years.

3.2 Secondary: Academic Council (AC), University Life Committee (ULC), Planning and Budgeting Committee (PBC) AND Facilities and Support Services Committee (FSSC).

3.3 Subcommittees: Subcommittees can be established by any Secondary SGS committee as it deems appropriate.

3.3 See Attachment 1 for the SGS organizational structure.

IV. COMMITTEE DESCRIPTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 University Council

4.1.1 University Council (UC) shall be the SGS committee that will make final recommendations to the university president. Recommendations will come to the UC from the Secondary SGS committees.

4.1.2 The UC may forward proposals with a recommendation to approve, a recommendation to amend, or a recommendation to disapprove the proposal. The President may accept the proposal as presented, accept the amendment, or reject the proposal with comments. All matters forwarded by UC constitute recommendations to the president. All final decisions on any such changes remain within the purview of the president.
